Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is in response to applicant's preliminary amendment received on 31 MAY 2005. Claims 1 and 2 have been cancelled by the applicant in the above amendment and have been withdrawn from consideration in this Office Action.

Information Disclosure Statement

2. The listing of references in the specification is not a proper information disclosure statement. 37 CFR 1.98(b) requires a list of all patents, publications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office, and MPEP § 609.04(a) states, "the list may not be incorporated into the specification but must be submitted in a separate paper." Therefore, unless the references have been cited by the examiner on form PTO-892, they have not been considered. Specifically, DE 199 51 083 A1 has been listed on Page 1 of the Specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 3 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

5. Where applicant acts as his or her own lexicographer to specifically define a term of a claim contrary to its ordinary meaning, the written description must clearly redefine the claim term and set forth the uncommon definition so as to put one reasonably skilled in the art on notice that the applicant intended to so redefine that claim term. Process Control Corp. v. HydReclaim Corp., 190 F.3d 1350, 1357, 52 USPQ2d 1029, 1033 (Fed. Cir. 1999). The term “manifold” in claims 3 and 4 is used by the claim to mean an intake portion between an opening and the length of an induction duct, while the accepted meaning is an intake or exhaust portion where an air duct branches off or converges together, respectively. The term is indefinite because the specification does not clearly redefine the term. Presently the term “manifold” has been interpreted as the intake portion between an opening and the full length of an induction duct, which may be construed as the entrance portion/region of the induction duct itself.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 3 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by LEIPELT et al. LEIPELT et al distinctly discloses an air intake device comprising of a housing (10) with a flange (11) attached to a fixed intake tube (12). Two movable intake tube segments (13 and 14) adjoins the fixed intake tube (12) and moves about coming pivot point (15) via supporting structures (16 and 17). Additionally, variable length gaskets (20 and 21) are provided.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure is listed in the attached PTO-892.
